The screenshot shows the Mobiflock website homepage. At the top, the logo "mobiflock" is displayed in red and black, with a small green "new" tag and "Now on iOS" text below it. To the right are "SIGN UP FREE" and "LOGIN" buttons. A navigation bar includes links for Home, For Me, For Parents, Features, Pricing, Partners, About, Blog, and Help, along with a search bar. The main banner features a cartoon sheep wearing a magnifying glass, with the text "SAFE COMMUNICATION" in large yellow letters and "Protect your child from dangerous content & conversations" below it. A "SPECIAL OFFER" banner states: "Mobiflock My Child for $24.95 (USUALLY $29.95) per year!". Below this, there are two promotional boxes: one for "Protect your child" with a "Trial free for 7 days" button and a "Special Offer! $24.95 per year" price, and another for "Protect your phone" with a "Download for free" button. At the bottom, four feature icons are shown: "Web Filtering" (block adult content), "Block Mobile Apps" (or timetable them), "Find your mobile device" (if it is lost or stolen), and "Web dashboard" (manage your devices).

Mobiflock has many positive reviews and good features.

Mobiflock does cost $24.95 for additional features.

- Kids on the Internet share information about how to get around these programs, although with a good program it isn't easy.
- There is no program that is perfect or that can replace guidance, education, accountability and supervision.

- Go to App Store and search for “mobiflock” (or ‘mobicip’ or ‘parental control’ for other options)
- Tap mobiflock in the app store
